

2020 Overseas Korean Studies Librarian Workshop

This workshop was held in Korean with consecutive English subtitles.

- 1) Holding a workshop specialized in old and rare collections considering previous/prospective participants' opinions.
- 2) Holding a lecture-based online workshop due to time difference and as it is impossible to provide practical training etc.
- 3) INKSLIB website(inkslib.nl.go.kr) – a brief Q&A session opened on Ask a Librarian for Librarians board.
- 4) Detailed Content

Lecture title	Lecturer	Language	Remarks
The Origin of Printed Matter and Publications of Korea, China and Japan	Ok, Young-Jung (Professor, Academy of Korean Studies, Diplomats and Bibliography)	Lecture in Korean, English Subtitle	90mins each (recorded)
Woodblock-printed Books and Printing Technologies of Korean Old Prints
An Aspect of Copy and Circulation of Jeong Seon's Paintings during the Period of Modernization: Collection of the British Library	Park, Jeong-Ae (Lecturer, Chung-Ang University, Fine Art, Department of Korean Painting)		